RELIGIOUS RETIREMENT FUND COLLECTION

The Retirement Fund for Religious Appeal will take place in most parishes November 17-18. The collection will be on November 24-25. Information packets have been sent to pastors and religious presenters. All religious presenters should have contacted your pastors by now. Kindly do so ASAP if you have not had the opportunity thus far. For further information or materials please contact the Office of Vowed Religious at 330-744-8451, ext. 237 or 238.

LETTERS OF SUITABILITY

Please note that no priest or deacon may exercise ministry within the Diocese of Youngstown without being granted faculties/permission by the bishop. It is the obligation of the pastor of the parish where ministry or speaking engagement will occur (or other responsible person outside a parish setting) to insure that the visiting cleric has obtained a letter of suitability. Without such a letter, the Diocese, the parish or school and the pastor or president could become legally liable should any wrongdoing occur.

The visiting cleric himself should ask his bishop or religious superior to send a letter of suitability to Bishop Murry. Letters of suitability are to be sent from one bishop/superior to another, not directly to a parish, since it is the bishop who is responsible for determining a cleric's suitability for ministry.

If you have any questions, please contact Msgr. John Zuraw, Chancellor

OFFICE OF SOCIAL ACTION

1. From the Catholic Conference of Ohio: November Election Edition

In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. The responsibility to make political choices rests with each person and his or her properly formed conscience.

Catholic voters are called to properly form their consciences in preparation for voting and for the continued advocacy for just laws and policies required after voting. This process should focus on moral principles, the defense of life, the needs of the weak, and the pursuit of the common good. It requires constant prayer, understanding of Church teaching, and discernment that goes beyond campaign rhetoric and partisan politics. More information can be found in the attachments.

2. Save the Date

Annual Black Catholic History Month Mass, November 17, 2018. St. Mary/St. Benedict Church, Canton, 4 pm, Bishop George Murry celebrant.

CLERGY AND RELIGIOUS SERVICES

OFFICE OF VOCATIONS

1. Vocation Awareness Week

Vocation Awareness Week for this year will be celebrated from Sunday, November 4th through Saturday, November 10th. Consider now how you may celebrate this week in your community. This is a great time to teach vocations in the school and religious education setting. Go to vocationlessons.com for lesson plans. Also, as part of a stateside day of prayer, Eucharistic Adoration will be offered at various parishes throughout the diocese on Wednesday, November 7. Look for the flier that shows places and times. Resources to celebrate the week have been sent to our parishes and schools.

2. Help Needed

In an effort to keep a current roster of men and women from our diocese that are studying for a religious order (inside or outside of the diocese), your help is needed. If you know of someone in this situation please email their name, order they are studying for and local contact information. We are hopeful to start a poster similar to our seminarian poster that shows all the men and women from our diocese who are studying for a religious order. To do so, we will need a current photo of each discerner for the poster. If you have this information, please email Fr. Chris Luoni at cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org

3. Come and See Weekends

Come and See weekends allow young men the opportunity to experience what seminary life is like. During these weekends participants have the opportunity to attend classes with seminarians, experience the prayer life, participate in community recreation, and learn how to find their vocation. Following are the Come and See weekends for the fall semester

St. Mary Seminary – Cleveland

- November 9-11
- November 30 – December 2

The weekend is open to men 17 to 44 years of age. Register at clepriesthood.org - go to the Discernment and Discovery tab.

If you know of a man who may be interested, please encourage him to register for a weekend.

4. Discernment Retreat

Men (18 and older) who would like to find out more about the calling God has for their life, are invited to attend a discernment retreat the weekend of December 14-16th. The retreat will begin on Friday evening at 6:00 pm and conclude on Sunday at noon and will be held at Villa Maria Retreat Center in Villa Maria, PA. Men will have the opportunity for prayer – personal and communal – discussions with men who are actively discerning – informational conferences and time to speak with our seminarians about their discernment. There is no cost to attend. For more information call the Vocations Office at 330-744-8451 or email Fr. Christopher Luoni at cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org. To register, go to: youngstownvocations.org

5. Seminary Field Trips

Our diocese has an established relationship with St. Mary Seminary in Cleveland. Because of its close proximity to our diocese, consider taking a day for young men and women to have a field trip to St. Mary's. Children from 6th thru 12th grades can find out first hand what life is like in a seminary. Depending on when your tour is arranged, we hope to have a Youngstown seminarian guide the tour. This is a great opportunity for kids in our Catholic schools, CCD programs and youth ministry programs. For more information or to schedule a tour, please call the Vocation Office at 330-744-8451.

6. Pastoral Internship Year

In the new academic year (2018-2019), four seminarians who have completed 2nd year Theology will go on pastoral internship serving at four parishes in our diocese. They are assigned to the following parishes:

|------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------|
| • Brook Benedict | Immaculate Conception, Ravenna | Fr. William Kraynak |
| • Scott Brand | St. Michael's, Canton | Fr. Don King |
| • Chad Johnson | St. Rose, Girard | Msgr. John Zuraw |
| • Brian Smith | St. Peter/St. John Basilica, Canton | Fr. John Sheridan |

7. Vocation Ministry

Our diocese is working with Rhonda Gruenewald, the author of Hundredfold, A Guide to Parish Vocation Ministry, to increase our vocation presence. We are looking to either start or increase vocation ministries in all of our parishes and schools. This can be achieved using the book Hundredfold as a resource to make it happen. It is a simple to use resource that provides plenty of no cost to low cost ideas that do not take too much time to implement. A copy of the book is available for all parishes and schools to begin this work. If you do not have the book already, it will be sent soon. Consider who in your community can help create this important ministry.

8. YouTube Channel – Buckeye Vocations

The Vocation Directors from the six diocese of the state of Ohio have worked together to create a YouTube channel for vocations. The channel will feature different vocation events and short video clips about vocations from around the state. On YouTube go to Buckeye Vocations and search around to see what is available for your personal viewing or for your classroom setting.

9. Vocation Lessons

Please do not forget to make use of Vocation Lessons for your school, religious education or youth ministry program. It is a vocation curriculum that has lessons and instructions online that you can download and use in your classroom/meeting setting. It is FREE for your use and can be accessed as many times as you want throughout the year. If you do not already have a brochure that contains the access codes, please request one by contacting Fr. Christopher Luoni at the Vocations Office at 330-744-8451 or by email at cluoni@youngstowndiocese.org.

The Cross and the Lynching Tree. Cone, James H. Orbis Books, 2011. Examines the symbols of the cross and the lynching tree in African Americans daily life, spiritual life, and history.

A Cry is Heard: My Path to Peace. Vanier, Jean. Twenty Third Publications, 2018. Part autobiography, part memoir, part call to action to walk a path to unity and peace, this new book by L'Arche founder Jean Vanier is profoundly inspiring and filled with hope. Vanier's account of his life revolves around "encountering difference and working constantly to build bridges and not walls: this is the path of peace." Indeed, says Vanier, "a path to unity, fellowship, and peace is possible." True freedom grows from loving others and letting ourselves be loved. By accepting ourselves and others – with all our weaknesses and all our gifts – we find true inner freedom. In meeting those on the margins, we heal our own hearts and are able to work for a transformation of societies.

Stand Your Ground: Black Bodies and the Justice of God. Douglas, Kelly Brown. Orbis Books, 2015. On the Sunday morning after the acquittal of Trayvon Martin's killer, black preachers across America addressed the questions his death raised for their communities: "Where is the justice of God? What are we to hope for?" In this timely and compelling book, Kelly Brown Douglas examines the myths and narratives underlying a "stand-your-ground" culture, taking seriously the social as well as the theological questions raised by this and similar events, from Ferguson, Missouri to Staten Island, New York.

Waiting in Mindful Hope: Wisdom for Times of Transition. Sheehan, Martina Lehane. Twenty Third Publications, 2018. The traffic jam, the long line at the drive-through, the spinning ball on the computer—in our hectic and busy lives, these times of waiting can leave us frustrated and even angry. But they don’t need to. In fact, if we look at them differently, says Martina Lehane Sheehan, these times can be daily opportunities to practice a sense of balance and self-possession. In this wise and eloquent little book, Lehane Sheehan shows us that by focusing on wakefulness, listening, discernment, heartfulness, acceptance, choosing newness, and joy, we can put frustration aside and find peace and serenity and a new sense of life.

OFFICE OF WORSHIP

1. Celebration of Confirmation for Adults

Bishop George V. Murry, S.J., will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for Adults on Sunday, November 18, 2018, at 2:00 p.m. in Saint Columba Cathedral. This is a special opportunity for parishioners age 18 or older who have not received the sacrament to join with other adults of the diocese.

2. Liturgical Calendar Advisory

December 8 – Feast of the Immaculate Conception: The Feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8, 2018, is on Saturday this coming year. It remains a holy day of obligation even though it is on Saturday. Mass for the holy day may be scheduled on Friday night and Saturday morning. The anticipated Mass on Saturday evening is for Second Sunday of Advent and does not fulfill the holy day obligation. There is an obligation to participate at Mass for both the Feast of the Immaculate Conception and for the Second Sunday of Advent. Should a wedding be scheduled on December 8, 2018, the ritual Mass for Matrimony may not be used. The Mass prayers and readings of the day must be used without change.

3. New Lay Leaders of Prayer

Twenty-three new Lay Leaders of Prayer will complete the course of formation and be commissioned on Wednesday, November 14, 2018, at 7:00 p.m. at Our Lady of the Lakes Parish – Saint James Church in North. Jackson. Congratulations to our new Lay Leaders of Prayer!

4. The Light Is On For You ~ An Evening of Reconciliation

“The Light is On for You” ~ An Evening of Reconciliation” will be held on Wednesday, March 20, 2019. All parishes are asked to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation either individually from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. or by scheduling your Lenten Communal Reconciliation Service with neighboring parishes on this day. This event will coincide with a similar evening for the Cleveland diocese.

5. Rite of Election and the Easter Vigil

Bishop George V. Murry, S.J. will celebrate the Rite of Election of Catechumens and the Call to Continued Conversion of Candidates on the First Sunday of Lent, March 10, 2019 at Saint Columba Cathedral at 1:30 p.m. and at Saint Joseph Church, Canton at 6:00 p.m.

The Easter Vigil in 2019 will be on Saturday, April 20, 2019. The Roman Missal states that, “the entire celebration of the Easter Vigil must take place during the night, so that it begins after nightfall...” Furthermore, the Priest Policy Handbook states that the Easter Vigil “is not to take place at the time of the ordinary anticipated Mass for Sunday,” (cf. Faculties and Permissions, Section V, pg. 10). In the Diocese of Youngstown, sunset on April 20, 2019 will be at 8:08 p.m. and the end of civil twilight will be at 8:36p.m. Therefore the Vigil should not begin before 8:00 p.m. to insure darkness and is recommended to begin at 8:30 p.m. Because daylight savings time now begins each year in early March, the recommended start time of Easter Vigil, will never be before 8 p.m. Parishes are therefore encouraged to begin the yearly practice of not scheduling the Easter Vigil before 8 p.m.

7. Pueri Cantores Choral Festival and Mass for Youth Choirs

Our Diocese will be participating in the 2019 American Federation Pueri Cantores Choral Festival and Mass on Saturday, March 30, 2019 at Saint Paul Cathedral in Pittsburgh. This Choral Festival is for Youth Choir members in grades 4-12 and will serve as our annual Youth Choir Festival in 2019. Parishes with Youth Choirs are encouraged to attend. More information regarding transportation details, registration information, festival repertoire and downloadable music will be forthcoming.

8. Flu Season and Liturgical Celebrations

During flu season parishes may receive requests from parishioners to make changes to liturgical celebrations in order to prevent the spread of the flu and other viruses. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, in consultation with the Center for Disease Control, recommends that the following measures be taken in the celebration of the liturgy:

- a. Priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion should be especially reminded of the need to practice good hygiene.

All Ministers of Holy Communion are encouraged to wash their hands using an alcohol based anti-bacterial solution before Mass begins and immediately after Mass.

- b. Pastors should instruct people who feel ill not to receive from the cup.
- c. Those who are sick should stay home, and limit contact with others to keep from infecting them.
- d. All should be encouraged to follow good everyday healthy actions:
 - of covering your nose and mouth with a tissue when coughing;
 - avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth after shaking hands or touching any surface;
 - avoid close contact with those who are sick.

At the present time, the Bishop's Committee on Divine Worship of USCCB has not issued directives considering any changes, adaptations or restrictions of options in the celebration of the Liturgy.

9. Consultation on the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

The Committee on Divine Worship has begun the preparation of a new English edition of the RCIA. The title has been changed to the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults to better reflect that the book contains many rites which are celebrated as a person journeys toward full initiation. As each of the former sacramental books of rites are revised, they have been renamed an Order. In preparation for this revision The Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA) conducted a survey that looked at how the statutes were being implemented. Another consultation was done by the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions (FDLC) that contained suggestions for improving the National Statutes. The National Statutes, which appear as Appendix III at the very end of the RCIA book, are the laws that govern the way the RCIA is to be done in the United States. With the results of these consultations the Secretariat of Divine Worship would like to hear from you about your experiences with the process of the RCIA and in particular with the ritual book and the National Statutes:

- What have you found helpful and effective?
- What difficulties have you encountered?
- What changes would you recommend?
- Do you have other feedback concerning the RCIA (book and/or process)?

In your reply, please tell a little bit about yourself:

- How have you been involved in RCIA ministry?
- In what capacity and for how long?
- Have you gone through the RCIA process yourself?
- What was your experience like?

Through December 31, 2018, responses can be e-mailed to RCIA@usccb.org or sent by regular mail to: USCCB – Divine Worship, 3211 Fourth Street, NE, Washington, DC @0017, ATTN: RCIA Consultation.

The Diocese of Des Moines has advised the Conference of its concerns regarding Rev. Carlos Gómez Piñeda, a recently excommunicated priest ordained for the Diocese of Des Moines. The diocese relates that Rev. Piñeda has recently sought a ministry position in other U.S. dioceses, and that it has reason to believe he intends to remain in the U.S. The Diocese of Des Moines states that it could not favorably recommend Rev. Gómez Piñeda for ministry, due to prior incidents that it describes as involving the abuse of Rev. Gómez Piñeda's position of influence and authority and sexual activity with adult women. If further information is needed, contact should be made with the Chancellor of the Diocese of Des Moines, Jason Kurth, at 515-237-5061 or jkurth@dmdiocese.org.
