CHANCERY OFFICE

LETTERS OF SUITABILITY

Please note that no priest or deacon may exercise ministry within the Diocese of Youngstown without being granted faculties/permission by the bishop. It is the obligation of the pastor of the parish where ministry or speaking engagement will occur (or other responsible person outside a parish setting) to insure that the visiting cleric has obtained a letter of suitability. Without such a letter, the Diocese, the parish or school and the pastor or president could become legally liable should any wrongdoing occur.

The visiting cleric himself should ask his bishop or religious superior to send a letter of suitability to Bishop Murry. Letters of suitability are to be sent from one bishop/superior to another, not directly to a parish, since it is the bishop who is responsible for determining a cleric's suitability for ministry.

If you have any questions, please contact Msgr. John Zuraw, Chancellor

PARISH FESTIVALS

CANONICAL SERVICES

Tribunal In-Service Available

The Tribunal staff has made available an ongoing, in-service for pastors, associates, deacons, religious, directors of religious education, religious education coordinators and counselors in order to prepare them in facilitating pleas for nullity for persons within the community whose marriages have broken down and who may be seeking a second union recognized by the Church.

The in-service focuses on preparation of case histories, compilation of documents, witnesses and determining of the appropriate grounds of nullity. Covered also are other types of nullity procedures.

Size of the in-service is in small groups of between 8-12 participants and generally runs approximately two hours. The in-service is offered at either the offices of the Tribunal of the Diocese of Youngstown or at a parish in the Canton area.

Interested parties, who have not already registered or who need a “refresher” should call the Tribunal at (330) 744-8451, ext. 252, to have their names placed on the registrant list. You would then be contacted when there are at least eight registrants for a particular location.

OFFICE OF EVANGELIZATION

Workshops available to be presented at parishes upon request

The Office of Evangelization and Pastoral Planning has conducted several regional workshops recently that can be adapted for individual parish groups. “Missionary Discipleship in Parish Ministry” helps parishioners active in ministry to understand the call to evangelization and to think of their ministry in terms of missionary discipleship. “Preparing and Practicing My Faith Story” helps parishioners reflect on their faith journey within the context of prayer and gives them the tools to articulate and share their faith story with others. A basic overview of evangelization with practical ideas and suggestions is also available for Parish Councils, evangelization teams, or others interested parishioners. To schedule one of these at your parish or to learn more about other workshops, please contact Pete Schafer at (330) 744-8451 ext. 275 or pschafer@youngstowndiocese.org.

This program is open to anyone who is ready to go deeper in their faith journey and further discern God's will in their life. ### 3. Focus on FOCCUS

The Marriage Preparation Policy of the Diocese of Youngstown calls for the use of "a pre-marriage assessment inventory tool" such as FOCCUS (Facilitating Open Couple Communication, Understanding & Study). While FOCCUS is not the only such tool, in our diocese it is the most popular. Here are some details for current or future FOCCUS users:

- As of July 1, 2019 FOCCUS is raising its prices. They will be charging an additional $5.00 for processing each FOCCUS inventory. This means that the price of each FOCCUS inventory sent to the Office of Pro-Life, Marriage & Family Life will be $20.00 per session (instead of $15.00). The last such price increase was over ten years ago.
- FOCCUS is making a number of resources available for free. For instance, the Couple Inventory Booklets (which previously cost $5.00 each) can now be gotten as a PDF file, along with other free, helpful resources related to the inventory and its interpretation. Users who have their own account with FOCCUS may find these resources by pressing the "Downloadable Content" link on their "My Recent Activity" page when they enter the FOCCUS website. Users who rely on the Office of Pro-Life, Marriage and Family Life to score the inventories can obtain these resources by contacting 330-744-8451 ext. 271 or 272 or dschmidt@youngstowndiocese.org.

- A revised FOCCUS Scoring Order Form has been developed to reflect the above changes and may be found (along with the QuickScore Answer Sheets) on the webpage of the Office of Pro-Life, Marriage and Family Life at www.doy.org.

For more information on FOCCUS contact dschmidt@youngstowndiocese.org or 330-744-8451 ext. 272.

The dates of NFP Awareness Week highlight the anniversary of Humanae Vitae (July 25) and the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of Mary, the Blessed Mother. Resources (e.g., the 2018 NFP Week poster, web banners, prayers, homily notes, bulletin inserts, etc.) and ideas for celebrating and promoting NFP Awareness Week can be found on the USCCB's NFP Program website: <http://www.usccb.org/nfp/awareness-week/index.cfm>. Please visit us anytime between 8:00 am-4:00 pm, Monday through Friday, or by appointment. You can access the collection 24/7 at <https://doylelib.follettdestiny.com>.

Peacemaking and Non-Violence: Threshold Bible Study. Binz, Stephen J. Twenty Third Publications, 2018. This six session bible study for adults focuses on the teaching of the prophets and Jesus as a way out of our addiction to violence, weapons, and war. Learn to read the prophets, the gospels, and letters of Paul and Peter through the lens of the cross and become a Christian peacemaker.

Still Green and Growing: A Practical Spirituality for the Second Half of Life. Lavoie, Sylvan. Novalis, 2019. Archbishop Sylvain Lavoie, OMI, matches biblical and incarnation spirituality with a wisdom garnered from personal experience of dealing with reality — the good and the bad — to present us with a practical spirituality for growing old with zeal, love and intimacy.

Upward: Faith, Church, and the Ascension of Christ. Kelly, Anthony J. Liturgical Press, 2014. The ascension of Christ is usually taken for granted and often neglected. Indeed, it represents that forgotten dimension of faith in its reach beyond the categories, concepts, and concerns of our mundane existence, even in the church. This book is written with the conviction that there are further riches to be discovered. Christ’s ascension indelibly marks the limitless horizon of Christian life. It reminds us that the mission of evangelization is unconfined, always moving beyond, upward, outward, in the vitality of the risen Christ who already occupies every dimension of time and space.

Vatican I: The Council and the Making of the Ultramontane Church. O’Malley, John W. Harvard University Press, 2018. In the nineteenth century, the foundations upon which the Catholic Church had rested for centuries were shaken by liberalism. At the Vatican Council of 1869-1870, the church made a dramatic effort to set things right by defining the doctrine of papal infallibility. As a result, the church became more pope-centered than ever before.

4. Displaying of Flags in Catholic Churches (from the USCCB website)

There are no specific regulations governing the display of flags in Roman Catholic Churches. Neither the Code of Canon Law, nor liturgical books of the Roman rite comment on this practice. As a result, the question of whether and how to display the American flag in church is left to the judgment of the diocesan bishop, who in turn often delegates this to the discretion of the pastor. The Bishop's Committee on Divine Worship encourages that the American flag not be placed within the sanctuary itself, in order to reserve that space for the altar, ambo, presidential chair and tabernacle. Instead, the suggestion is made that the American flag be placed outside the sanctuary, or in the vestibule along with a book of prayer requests

5. Liturgical Directory

The Liturgical Directory contains valuable information about Liturgy Committees; liturgical minister formation guidelines; guidelines for the celebration of sacraments; music in liturgical celebrations; and art and architecture directives. The directory can be accessed and downloaded from the diocesan website by clicking on "Worship" under the "Ministries" tab.

MISCELLANEOUS*USCCB ADVISORY

The Diocese of Amarillo has asked that the members of the Conference be advised that if either Rev. Henry Echavarria or Rev. Peter Wafula, who are members of the Cruzados del Espiritu Santo (Crusaders of the Holy Spirit), a Diocesan Right religious community based in Parana, Argentina, request ministry within your arch/diocese, the Diocese of Amarillo asks that those involved please contact Rev. Francisco Perez, Vicar General of the Diocese of Amarillo. Fr. Perez may be reached at (806) 383-2243.

USCCB ADVISORY

The Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA has advised the Conference of its concerns regarding Samuel Eugene Allen. The Archdiocese advises that Mr. Allen has recently presented himself as a permanent Deacon of the Archdiocese for the Military Services to a parish in Milford, DE. In the course of doing so he produced documents purporting to show that, which were forwarded to the Archdiocese. It confirms that the records are false, and that Mr. Allen is not and has never been associated with the Archdiocese as a cleric. The Archdiocese also relates that Mr. Allen represented that he had “ministered” in Norfolk, VA area. Those needing more information should contact Msgr. John Foster, Vicar General of the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA, at (202) 719-3630.

USCCB ADVISORY

The Eparchial Bishop of Newton of the Melkite Greek Catholic Church has advised the Conference of his concerns regarding Fr. Anthony (or Antoine) Nacheff, a former priest of the Basilian Salvatorian Order who was excommunicated for attempting marriage. The Eparchial Bishop’s previous cautions regarding Fr. Nacheff were relayed to the Conference’s membership by memo dated June 19, 2014. The Eparchial Bishop’s renewed concerns about Fr. Nacheff arise out of the fact that he is now reported to have been received as a priest of the Missionary Disciples of Jesus Good Shepherd based in Tuxtla Gutierrez, Chiapas, Mexico. The Eparchial Bishop states he has received a number of disturbing reports related to Fr. Nacheff’s apparent ministry activities in the Carolinas, described as allegations of misconduct with adult married women, threats of violence, and alleged attempted rape. The Eparchial Bishop also relates that Fr. Nacheff is continuing to operate a private business, Proximo Travel, which purports to conduct “pilgrimages” despite Fr. Nacheff’s status. The Eparchy of Newton indicates that it has advised Fr. Nacheff’s superior in the Missionary Disciples of Jesus Good Shepherd of these accusations, and that the Diocese of Charlotte has done so as well, but to date has received no response. Those needing further information should contact Bishop Nicholas Samra at Nicholas.samra@yahoo.com or Rev. Theophan Leonarczyk at chancery@mekite.org.

USCCB ADVISORY

The Diocese of Evansville has advised the Conference of its concerns regarding Rev. Pascal Nduka, a priest from the Diocese of Issele-Uke, Nigeria, who had been serving in the Diocese of Evansville since 2013. He has now completed his pastoral ministry in the Diocese and no longer has that Diocese’s faculties. The Diocese relates that he has been directed to return to his diocese of incardination, but, as he has permanent residency status in the United States, it is unclear when he will be returning to Nigeria. If Fr. Nduka should request faculties, the Diocese asks that those concerned please contact Very Rev. Bernard Etienne, Vicar General of the Diocese of Evansville. Fr. Etienne can be reached at (812) 424-5536.
