CHANCERY OFFICE

MINISTRY DAY 2019

“Embracing Our Call: A Journey We Share in Hope”

Saturday, October 19, 2019

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

St. Thomas Aquinas High School, Louisville

Nancy Bird, Director of Training and Professional Development for RCL Benziger will present the Keynote address entitled “Embracing Our Call: A Journey We Share in Hope.”

Over sixty breakout sessions on a variety of ministry topics will inspire participants for “Embracing Our Call.” Please share the date with all those in your ministry.

LETTERS OF SUITABILITY

Please note that no priest or deacon may exercise ministry within the Diocese of Youngstown without being granted faculties/permission by the bishop. It is the obligation of the pastor of the parish where ministry or speaking engagement will occur (or other responsible person outside a parish setting) to insure that the visiting cleric has obtained a letter of suitability. Without such a letter, the Diocese, the parish or school and the pastor or president could become legally liable should any wrongdoing occur.

The visiting cleric himself should ask his bishop or religious superior to send a letter of suitability to Bishop Murry. Letters of suitability are to be sent from one bishop/superior to another, not directly to a parish, since it is the bishop who is responsible for determining a cleric’s suitability for ministry.

If you have any questions, please contact Msgr. John Zuraw, Chancellor

Praying Our Way Toward Wholeness: A Step-by-Step Guide to Daily Prayer. O’Sullivan, Tracy. Twenty Third Publications, 2019. “One of the best ways to encounter Jesus,” says Fr. Tracy O’Sullivan, “is unswerving commitment to deep personal prayer.” And in this simple and elegant guide, he shows us step by step the path to such life-changing prayer as practiced in the Carmelite tradition. “The Carmelite tradition,” he says, “is a special roadmap created by some of the great saints and Doctors of the Church. It is a call for beginners, a lift for those on the way, and an awesome guide for those approaching home. One thing we all share is that we need to take the next step.”

Revolutionary Saint: the Theological Legacy of Oscar Romero. Lee, Michael E. Orbis Books, 2017. Many years after his death in 1980, the world is still absorbing the witness of Óscar Romero, the archbishop of San Salvador, martyred for his commitment to the poor and social justice. In this work, Michael E. Lee offers a profound reflection on the theological implications of Romero’s life and ministry. Drawing on Romero’s biography as well as his homilies and other writings, Lee considers specifically how Romero’s witness challenges Christians in the U.S. to reimagine a robust Christian spirituality that is at once a mystical encounter with God and a prophetic engagement in the struggle for justice. In light of Romero’s beatification and pending canonization, Lee reflects on the implications of the archbishop's recognition as a martyr and on the model of holiness he offers for the wider church today

Salt and Light: Church, Disability, and the Blessing of Welcome for All. Pratt, Maureen. Twenty Third Publications, 2018. How do we welcome those who have disabilities to our parishes? How do we reach out and learn new and better ways of communicating so that all of God’s children feel welcome? In this clearly written, inspirational, and very practical book, covering everything from evangelization to catechesis and vocations, Maureen Pratt suggests new ways of seeing and relating that will help to make our parishes truly representative of every member of the family of God.

Who Me, Evangelize? A Simple Guide to Living and Sharing Your Faith. Eipers, Carole M. Twenty Third Publications, 2018. We are all called by our baptism to evangelize—to share the faith with others. But what exactly does that mean? Ringing doorbells and handing out tracts? Buttonholing people at the airport, supermarket, or work to talk about Jesus? No! says Carole Eipers, in this excellent guide. Our lives witness our faith—we are already evangelizing. We can always do better though, and this guide explains and shows us how. This is a great resource for discussion and affirmation, for catechists, small groups, and families.

3. Implementation Date for New Order of Baptism of Children, second edition

The Congregation for Divine Worship and Discipline of the Sacraments has confirmed the new Order of Baptism of Children, second edition for the dioceses of the United States. Cardinal DiNardo, USCCB President, has indicated that the new Order of Baptism of Children may be used beginning on February 2, 2020, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord and its mandatory use begins April 12, 2020, Easter Sunday. From this date forward, no other translation of the rite is to be used in the dioceses of the United States. Approved publishers will soon begin distributing information on the new ritual book and updated baptismal preparation materials and resources. In addition, depending on the scope of change and if necessary, the Office of Worship will also provide formation opportunities on the new Order of Baptism of Children.

4. Liturgical Calendar Advisory's

November 2 – Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day): The Feast of the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day) is Saturday, November 2, 2019. Mass celebrated for All Souls Day should be scheduled in the morning. Ritual Masses, including wedding masses, are not permitted this day. The Saturday evening anticipated Mass should be for the 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time.

December 8 – Feast of the Immaculate Conception: This year the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, normally December 8, falls on a Sunday. However this year, Sunday, December 8 is to be celebrated as the Second Sunday of Advent. In accordance with no. 5 of the Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, the observance of the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception will be transferred to Monday, December 9. This is seen as a pastoral concession to observe the Solemnity even though it is impeded liturgically by a higher observance. The obligation to attend Mass remains attached to the day itself (December 8), and therefore does not transfer. As a result, the obligation to attend mass on December 9 for the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is dispensed for this year.

5. Celebration of Confirmation for Adults

Bishop George V. Murry, S.J., will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for Adults on Sunday, November 17, 2019, at 2:00 p.m. in Saint Columba Cathedral. This is a special opportunity for parishioners age 18 or older who have not received the sacrament to join with other adults of the diocese. Information and registration/eligibility forms will be mailed in September to all parishes. Candidates are to be prepared in their parishes for this celebration.

6. The Light Is On For You ~ An Evening of Reconciliation

“The Light is On for You” ~ An Evening of Reconciliation” will be held on Wednesday, March 11, 2020. All parishes are asked to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation either individually from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. or by scheduling your Lenten Communal Reconciliation Service with neighboring parishes on this day. This event will coincide with a similar evening for the Cleveland diocese.

7. Rite of Election and the Easter Vigil

Bishop George V. Murry, S.J. will celebrate the Rite of Election of Catechumens and the Call to Continued Conversion of Candidates on the First Sunday of Lent, March 1, 2020 at Saint Columba Cathedral at 1:30 p.m. and at Saint Joseph Church, Canton at 6:00 p.m.

The Easter Vigil: The Easter Vigil will be on Saturday, April 11, 2020. The Roman Missal states that, “the entire celebration of the Easter Vigil must take place during the night, so that it begins after nightfall...” Furthermore, the Priest Policy Handbook states that the Easter Vigil “is not to take place at the time of the ordinary anticipated Mass for Sunday,” (cf. Faculties and Permissions, Section V, pg. 10). In the Diocese of Youngstown, sunset on April 11, 2020 will be at 7:58 p.m. and the end of civil twilight will be at 8:27 p.m. Bishop Murry has instituted a universal starting time for the Easter Vigil throughout the diocese of 8:00 p.m. or later. This universal starting time respects the current liturgical guidelines and diocesan policy. Furthermore it makes the Easter Vigil distinctive from the ordinary anticipated Mass for Sunday and alleviates any confusion among parishes. Therefore the Easter Vigil is not to begin before 8:00 p.m. Please note that because daylight savings time begins each year in early March, the recommended start time of Easter Vigil will never be before 8 p.m.

8. Liturgical Directory

The Liturgical Directory contains valuable information about Liturgy Committees; liturgical minister formation guidelines; guidelines for the celebration of sacraments; music in liturgical celebrations; and art and architecture directives. The directory can be accessed and downloaded from the diocesan website by clicking on “Worship” under the “Ministries” tab.

In "The Holy Ghost and Other Terrifying Tales", "Sister" offers up hilarious lessons on all the familiar Halloween tales of ghosts and goblins. Always hilarious but never disrespectful, Late Nite Catechism is sure to strike the funnybone of everyone who attended parochial school in the 1950's, 1960's, or 1970's.

Late Nite Catechism will be performed at 7:30 PM on Thursday, October 10, at the North Canton Hoover High School auditorium. Tickets for this event are $35 and can be purchased through Eventbrite.com or by phone at 330-353-6132.

This family friendly event offers ethnic foods such as pierogi, kielbasa, sauerkraut, chicken schnitzel and the now famous stuffed cabbage dinner. These foods can be paired with a craft beer or wine slushie to provide a complete dining experience! In addition to the culinary aspects, the festival offers other activities such as gift basket raffles, children's games and an hourly cash raffle featuring a $500 grand prize. Bring your dancing shoes and get ready to Polka the night away with the Frank Moravcik Band returning to the event who will be sharing in their passion of the Bavarian and Polka style music.
