

National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children

Saturday, September 18, 2021

The First National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children took place in September of 2013 and has become an annual event in September (<https://nationaldayofremembrance.org/>).

Below is a list of parishes and other intuitions throughout the Diocese of Youngstown that have memorials to the unborn. Consider holding a memorial service at one of these sites on September 18 or during the month of October.
