CHANCERY OFFICE

LETTERS OF SUITABILITY

Please note that no priest or deacon may exercise ministry within the Diocese of Youngstown without being granted faculties/permission by the bishop. It is the obligation of the pastor of the parish where ministry or speaking engagement will occur (or other responsible person outside a parish setting) to insure that the visiting cleric has obtained a letter of suitability. Without such a letter, the Diocese, the parish or school and the pastor or president could become legally liable should any wrongdoing occur.

The visiting cleric himself should ask his bishop or religious superior to send a letter of suitability to Bishop Bonnar. Letters of suitability are to be sent from one bishop/superior to another, not directly to a parish, since it is the bishop who is responsible for determining a cleric's suitability for ministry.

If you have any questions, please contact Msgr. John Zuraw, Chancellor

The Tribunal staff has made available an ongoing, in-service for pastors, associates, deacons, religious, directors of religious education, religious education coordinators and counselors in order to prepare them in facilitating pleas for nullity for persons within the community whose marriages have broken down and who may be seeking a second union recognized by the Church.

The in-service focuses on preparation of case histories, compilation of documents, witnesses and determining of the appropriate grounds of nullity. Covered also are other types of nullity procedures.

Size of the in-service is in small groups of between 8-12 participants and generally runs approximately two hours. The in-service is offered at either the offices of the Tribunal of the Diocese of Youngstown or at a parish in the Canton area.

Interested parties, who have not already registered or who need a "refresher" should call the Tribunal at (330) 744-8451, ext. 252, to have their names placed on the registrant list. You would then be contacted when there are at least eight registrants for a particular location.

OFFICE OF PRO-LIFE, MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

1. No Taxpayer Funding of Abortion Campaign

In May Bishop Bonnar sent a letter to all pastors, administrators and parish leaders asking them to broadcast this simple announcement:

Keep your tax dollars from going to abortion! Go to www.NoTaxpayerAbortion.com.

Please continue to emphasize this message as Congress and the current administration persist in appropriating tax dollars to pay for abortions by taking away the Hyde Amendment.

Because the Hyde Amendment, which has been credited with saving 2.5 million lives, is now facing the most serious threat to its existence since being enacted forty-five years ago, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) is asking that this simple announcement be published far and wide in parish bulletins, newsletters, radio spots, diocesan newspapers, pastors' columns, etc. There are also flyers included in the attachments section of this Communique. For more information contact 330-744-8451 ext.272 or dschmidt@youngstowndiocese.org.

2. Project Rachel Outreach – August Message for Bulletin/Newsletter:

If your life has been affected by an abortion or someone else's abortion, there is Hope and Healing available for everyone. For CONFIDENTIAL help text or call Project Rachel of Northeast Ohio at 330-360-0430 or go to <https://hopeafterabortionneo.weebly.com/>.

10. Walking with Moms in Need

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods. We are encouraged to assess, expand, and communicate resources to pregnant moms and families in need. This nationwide effort entitled “Walking with Moms in Need” is sponsored by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Pro-Life Activities.

7. More summer reading recommendations from the library

St. Joseph, Pray for Us: Meditations and Prayers. Pope Francis. Paulist Press, 2021. Pope Francis captures the spiritual lessons of one of our most beloved saints. With these meditations from his Apostolic Letter Patris Corde, Francis seeks “to increase our love for this great saint, to encourage us to implore his intercession and to imitate his virtues and his zeal.” Alongside many beautiful images of St. Joseph, readers can prayerfully reflect on these meditations and consider how to apply them in their daily lives. In the final section we are invited to join the Holy Father in praying to this great saint for our needs, the needs of the whole Church, and the needs of the world.

The Ten Green Commandments of Laudato Si'. Joshtrom Isaac Kureethadam. Liturgical Press, 2019. The publication of Laudato Si'—a papal encyclical on a defining issue of our times—was a moment of great importance for Catholics and for the world. Now Fr. Joshtrom Kureethadam, one of the church's top experts on the document, provides a thoughtful, passionate, and highly accessible commentary on its key ideas and themes. Faithfully attentive to the outline of the six chapters of the encyclical, Fr. Joshtrom has also insightfully arranged the book according to the See-Judge-Act methodology that is increasingly used in spirituality, moral theology, and the social sciences.

Here Comes Life!: Seeking Wholeness and Happiness. Jim Clarke. Paulist Press, 2021. Life is messy and complicated. Being a Catholic in today's world no longer provides a life of comfort and security. The path to heaven is not as clear-cut as it used to seem. This book is about Jim Clarke's privileged immersion into the lives of ordinary people around the world, their questions, their pushbacks, their stories of suffering, but most of all, their faith expanding the boundaries of Clarke's white, middle-class, orthodox thinking, challenging his certainty about theological stances, and inviting him into a more thoroughly incarnational way of thinking. This book is not concerned with canonical matters, nor does it concern itself with abstruse theological debates, and it is not didactic in nature. It is purely and simply concerned with pastoral considerations, and it is hoped that it has the smell of the sheep. All conversations, questions, and wonderings recorded in the pages of this book come from genuine pastoral encounters with real people who shared their life experiences in a spirit of trust and openness.

Icons: The Essential Collection. Sr. Faith Riccio, CJ. Paraclete Press, 2016. This lovely gift book about approaching and praying with icons everyday has over 60 full color images of Sr. Faith's icons, each paired with a scripture and an inspirational word. Experience how these beautiful icons help us live a good life, what they have to offer, what they did for Sr. Faith, and what they can do for you.

Icons are an invitation to go beyond our world; to take a moment to look as through a window into heaven. The space they create gives us a wonderful and open access to reach out toward God and know him deeply in a new way. They are meant to enrich our spiritual lives. They were created to touch and form us and have an ability to soothe and confront where necessary. They provide a place to gather our wandering attention and direct it toward God.

OFFICE OF WORSHIP

1. Revised Directives and Guidance for Sunday and Holy Day Mass

With the reinstatement of the general obligation to attend Mass on Sunday and Holy Days along with the removal of most restrictions in the State of Ohio, the Office of Worship has provided revised Directives and Guidance for Public Liturgy. The Directives and Guidance can be found on the diocesan website: www.doy.org.

Every effort should be made to return Sunday/weekday worship to a style that promotes the full, active, and conscious participation of all in attendance as called for by the liturgy and expected by the People of God while maintaining a reasonably safe and comfortable environment. To that end, all restrictions have been rescinded with the exception of offering the Sign of Peace and reception of the Precious Blood. The Sign of Peace may be offered with a simply bow and words of peace to those nearby. The current environment suggests that reintroducing the reception of the Precious Blood from the chalice by the assembly at this time is not prudent. It is hoped, in the near future and with improving circumstances, an appropriate and proper reintroduction of the Sign of Peace and the reception of the Precious Blood by the faithful will be possible.
