No. 10

October, 2021

CHANCERY OFFICE

SYNOD MASS

On April 24, 2021, Pope Francis approved a new synodal programme for the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops entitled, “For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission.” The path toward the celebration of the Synod comprises of three phases between October 2021 and October 2023, a diocesan phase, a continental phase and finally a conclusive phase at the level of the Universal Church.

To emphasize that this synodal path is a shared journey, the Holy Father will celebrate the opening of the Synod at Vatican City on October 9-10, 2021. The following Sunday, October 17, 2021 he has asked that each diocese celebrate the opening of the Synod. The Diocese of Youngstown will celebrate the opening of the Synod on Sunday, October 17, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. in St. Columba Cathedral. All are invited to attend.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday will be observed October 23-24, 2021. For more bulletin content information please visit www.propfaith.net. This annual collection supports Pontifical Missions Society, Catholic Home Missions and the Black and Indian Missions. Please see flyer included in this month's Communique attachments for more information.

LETTERS OF SUITABILITY

Please note that no priest or deacon may exercise ministry within the Diocese of Youngstown without being granted faculties/permission by the bishop. It is the obligation of the pastor of the parish where ministry or speaking engagement will occur (or other responsible person outside a parish setting) to insure that the visiting cleric has obtained a letter of suitability. Without such a letter, the Diocese, the parish or school and the pastor or president could become legally liable should any wrongdoing occur.

The visiting cleric himself should ask his bishop or religious superior to send a letter of suitability to Bishop Bonnar. Letters of suitability are to be sent from one bishop/superior to another, not directly to a parish, since it is the bishop who is responsible for determining a cleric's suitability for ministry.

If you have any questions, please contact Msgr. John Zuraw, Chancellor

5. Saints Resources in the Diocesan Library

Special Saints for Special People: Stories of Saints with Disabilities. Megan C. Gannon. Twenty Third Publications, 2019. Did you know that Saint René Goupil, a trained surgeon and Jesuit missionary, was also completely deaf? Or that Saint Paulina, co-founder of the Congregation of the Little Sisters of the Immaculate Conception, lived her entire life with diabetes? Or that Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, the first Native American woman canonized a saint, was visually impaired and badly scarred after battling smallpox? Growing up with cerebral palsy, Megan Gannon never imagined there were saints with disabilities! In this remarkable book, she introduces us to saints and holy people whose stories inspire us to remember that saints are human beings who experience many of the same joys and challenges that we face every day.

All Good and Holy People: Prayers for Grieving and Remembering Loved Ones. Twenty Third Publications, 2020. No matter how long it has been since their passing, our beloved dead always hold a special place in our hearts. Remembering them in prayer can lift our spirits and strengthen our hope that we will see them again. This pocket book of prayers will help you express your grief, find comfort in the communion of saints, feel God's closeness, and hold firm to God's, loving promise of eternal life.

Making Sense of Saints: Fascinating Facts About Relics, Patrons, Canonization and More. Patricia Ann Kasten. Our Sunday Visitor, 2014. Saint cards, statues and medals. Saint posters, tee shirts, and costumes. Even saint apps and Facebook pages. Who are these saints and why do they matter to me? Who decided they were "saint-worthy" in the first place? Why aren't there more present day saints? Now, everything you always wanted to know about saints - and some things you didn't know you wanted to know - all in this fun and handy book that is perfect for families, teachers, catechists and everyone hoping to grow in their faith with the help of these, holy hall of famers!

I'm a Saint in the Making. Lisa M. Hendey. Paraclete Press, 2020. God has a special mission for each of us! With engaging prose and delightful illustrations, I'm a Saint in the Making reminds children of their unique call from God to live with mission and love. By recounting the highlights of the stories of both well-known and newer saints (including John Paul II, Mary MacKillop, Augustus Tolton, Teresa of Calcutta, Juan Diego and Chiara Badano) in relatable lessons, the book helps readers learn that there is no one single way to live a life of sanctity. I'm a Saint in the Making offers simple but impactful suggestions for ways children can offer acts of prayer, service, and love. Ages K- 4.

Thank you to the 32 parishes/offices that have already done so!

4. Helpful Hint

Getting started: Focus most of your time and effort on one platform. Discover which one your parishioners/members/families use most by informally ask them after Masses, or place a poll on your parish website. Or begin with the one with which you feel most comfortable, and invite parishioners to join you via website, bulletins, newsletters, etc. While the diocese has several platforms being used (as listed above), we began with Facebook in 2012 as it was the most popular nationally. However, we still spend more time and create more posts on Facebook as we have more Page Likes, Followers and people engaging with the content there.

Be consistent! Pick a timeframe, such as 2-3 times a week or daily posts, then keep it up to keep your page in the newsfeed of your followers. As you build your account, using quotes, photos and videos of your members (with their permission) will increase activity. You can always forward pre-made posts from the Diocese of Youngtown and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops as well.

OFFICE OF WORSHIP

1. Opening Mass for Synod

On April 24, 2021, Pope Francis approved a new synodal program for the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops entitled, “For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission.” The path toward the celebration of the Synod comprises of three phases between October 2021 and October 2023, a diocesan phase, a continental phase and finally a conclusive phase at the level of the Universal Church.

To emphasize that this synodal path is a shared journey, the Holy Father will celebrate the opening of the Synod at the Vatican on October 9-10, 2021. The following Sunday, October 17, 2021, Pope Francis has asked that each diocese celebrate the opening of the Synod.

Bishop Bonnar will celebrate an Opening Mass for the Synod on Sunday, October 17, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. in Saint Columba Cathedral. All are invited to attend.

2. Celebration of Confirmation for Adults

The Sacrament of Confirmation for Adults will be celebrated on Sunday, November 21, 2021, at 4:00 p.m. in Saint Columba Cathedral. This is a special opportunity for parishioners age 18 or older who have not received the sacrament to join with other adults of the diocese. Information and registration/eligibility forms have been mailed to all parishes. Candidates are to be prepared in their parishes for this celebration.

3. Liturgical Calendar Advisories for Upcoming Holy Days and Christmas/New Year

The following Liturgical Calendar Advisories are provided.

~Monday, November 1 - All Saints: The obligation to attend Mass is abrogated this year due to November 1 being on a Monday.

~Wednesday, December 8 - Feast of the Immaculate Conception: A holy day of obligation and the patronal feast of the United States.

~Sunday, December 12 - Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe: The Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe usually celebrated on December 12, 2021 is omitted this year. Sunday, December 12, 2021 is the Third Sunday of Advent. Our Lady of Guadalupe may be appropriately honored in the homily, Universal Prayer, and hymns during the Sunday liturgy. If pastoral advantage calls for it, (cf. GIRM 376), a Votive Mass of Our Lady of Guadalupe may be celebrated on a weekday before or after December 12 (December 9, 10, 11, 15 or 16), with the proper readings and prayers.

~Saturday, December 25 - Christmas: This year the Nativity of the Lord falls on a Saturday and is immediately followed on Sunday by the Feast of the Holy Family. The obligation for Christmas is fulfilled on Christmas Eve through Christmas Day morning. The obligation for the Feast of the Holy Family is fulfilled from the evening of Saturday, December 25 through Sunday, December 26. The question of satisfying one's obligation to attend Mass for both Christmas and Holy Family arises. For pastoral reasons and due to the number of Masses for Christmas, (and for the well-being of all liturgical ministers) it might be wise to consider not having an anticipated Mass on December 25 evening for the Feast of the Holy Family.

~Saturday, January 1 - Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God: In the United States, the obligation to attend Mass on January 1st is abrogated when this day occurs on a Monday or a Saturday. Therefore the obligation to attend Mass on Saturday, January 1, 2022 is dispensed this coming year. Mass on Saturday evening, January 1, would be the Vigil of the Epiphany.
