

DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

David J. Bonnar

By the Grace of God and the Apostolic See

BISHOP OF YOUNGSTOWN

DECREE

Whereas the parish is “pre-eminent among all the other communities present in his Diocese, for which the Bishop has primary responsibility: it is with the parishes above all that he must be concerned” (St John Paul II, post-synodal apostolic exhortation Pastores gregis, October 16, 2003, n. 45) and whereas the parish “remains the fundamental unit in the daily life of the Diocese” (ibid.);

Whereas the Bishop should proceed, after consulting the diocesan presbyteral council, to alter territorial boundaries, to divide parishes that are too large, to merge small parishes, to establish new parishes or non-territorial centers for pastoral service in the community, or even to reorganize completely the arrangement of parishes within a particular city if the good of the faithful so requires, and whereas the Bishop may wish to set up a diocesan office or commission that can operate in collaboration with other relevant diocesan commissions in order to study all the issues pertaining to the establishment of parishes and the construction of churches (cf. Congregation for Bishops, Directory for the Pastoral Ministry of Bishops Apostolorum Successores, February 22, 2004, n. 214);

Whereas, by decree of April 29, 2012, St. John the Baptist Parish, St. Joseph the Provider Parish, St. Lucy Parish, and Sta. Rosa de Lima Parish, all four parishes being personal parishes in Campbell, Ohio, were merged, and whereas the newly merged parish was given the name of Christ the Good Shepherd Parish;

Whereas we did not designate one of the churches as the parish church with said decree of April 29, 2012;

Whereas, after many consultations with the parish community and the diocesan administration, Father J. James Korda, Administrator of Christ the Good Shepherd Parish, has requested to designate the church of St. John the Baptist as the parish church of this parish;

Therefore, I, the undersigned Bishop of Youngstown, Ohio, after prayerful consideration, have decided as follows:

DECREE
