Stewardship Thoughts for Parish Bulletins
March 2022

March 6, 2022

1st Sunday of Lent

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me." (DEUTERONOMY 26:10)

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits" - the first and best that you have to offer, or do you give from what you have leftover?

Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

March 13, 2022

2nd Sunday of Lent

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession." (GENESIS 15:7)

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

March 20, 2022

3rd Sunday of Lent

"...He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'" (LUKE 13:7)

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts, and return them with increase. Remember, we are called to be generous with all of gifts; especially the one that means the most to you.

March 27, 2022

4th Sunday of Lent

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." (JOSHUA 5:12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased.

Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

6 de marzo de 2022

1er. Domingo de Cuaresma

“Ahora he traído los primeros frutos de la tierra que tú, Señor, me has dado” (Deuteronomio 26: 10)

Esta línea del Antiguo Testamento nos ofrece dos retos. Primero, ¿le entrega a Dios sus “primeros frutos”? los primeros y mejores que usted tiene para ofrecer, ¿o le está dando lo que le sobra? Segundo, ¿se da cuenta de que todo lo que es y todo lo que tiene le ha sido dado por Dios? Pídale a Dios que le dé un corazón agradecido y generoso, cada día, y en cualquier circunstancia.

13 de marzo de 2022

2do. Domingo de Cuaresma

“Yo soy el Señor que te trajo de Ur de los caldeos para darle esta tierra como posesión”. (Genesis 15: 7)

Así como el Señor le dio a Abraham, Moisés y los Israelitas una tierra para poseerla, Él también le ha dado a cada uno un hogar. Si su casa es grande o humilde, es un regalo de Dios. Abraham preparó un gran sacrificio al Señor en agradecimiento por el hogar que Dios le dio... ¿Cómo le muestra su gratitud a Dios por el hogar que Dios le ha dado? ¿Hace algún sacrificio de cualquier tipo? ... ¿Le regresa algo de sus finanzas a Dios, invirtiendo en su casa eterna de la misma forma que invierte en su casa terrenal?

20 de marzo de 2022

3er Domingo de Cuaresma

“... Él le dijo al viñador, ‘Por tres años he venido a buscar los frutos de la higuera, pero no encontré ninguno’” (LUCAS 13: 7)

A veces podemos ser como la higuera estéril. ¿Se aferra a lo que tiene o lo comparte generosamente con otros? ¿Cómo responderá cuando Dios le pregunte que ha hecho con todos los dones que Él le ha dado? Recuerde, no solamente estamos llamados a ser generosos, somos llamados a desarrollar y cuidar nuestros dones, y a retornarlos con creces. Recuerde, hemos sido llamados a ser generosos con todos los dones; especialmente aquellos que más significado tienen para usted.

27 de marzo de 2022

4to. Domingo de Cuaresma

“Ya no hubo más maná para los Israelitas, que ese año comieron del rendimiento de la tierra de Canaán.” (Josué 5:12)

En los cuarenta años que los israelitas viajaron por el desierto, Dios les proporcionó el maná para comer. Tan pronto como fueron capaces de disfrutar de los frutos de la Tierra Prometida dejaron de recibir el maná. De la misma manera, las bendiciones de Dios para nosotros pueden cambiar a través de los años, pero es importante confiar que Dios siempre nos proveerá de todo lo que necesitamos.

Lent 2022

Resources for Discussion and Reflection

Prepared by the Lutheran-Catholic Covenant Commission of the Northeastern Ohio Lutheran Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America & Catholic Diocese of Youngstown

---

First Sunday of Lent, March 6

Deuteronomy 26: 4-10

Romans 10:8-13

Luke 4:1-13

This first week of Lent calls upon us to reflect on what has been traditionally called “the temptation of Jesus.” We are told in the story that Jesus was driven into the wilderness after his baptism by the Holy Spirit when he is told by the voice You are my own dear Son. I am well pleased with you. Here Jesus must wrestle with a challenge from the Devil: If you are God’s Son... Will Jesus receive his identity from God or will he take the matter of his own identity in his own hands? Jesus is tempted to create his own identity based upon security and survival; power and control; and affection, esteem and approval needs.

As we enter the open space of Lent created by our spiritual disciplines, reflect on questions that come from the work of Thomas Keating. How do we try and create our own happiness programs by seeking an identity upon security and survival; power and control; or affection, esteem and approval. Which of these three happiness programs exert the most control in our lives this year? How do we let go of a life based upon our own happiness programs and embrace our baptismal identity from God?

Second Sunday of Lent, March 13

Genesis 15:1-12

Philippians 3:17-4:1

Luke 9:28-36 or Luke 13:31-35

This week’s Gospel story takes us up a hill to pray with Jesus and his inner circle, Peter, James, and John. In the Gospel of Luke, the practice of prayer seems to be a personal discipline of Jesus. While Jesus is praying, his face is changed and his clothes become dazzling white. In what we call the Transfiguration, Jesus appears in the company of the Law in the person of Moses and of the Prophets in the person of Elijah. We hear the same voice from Jesus’ Baptism say: This is my Son, whom I have chosen. Listen to him. Jesus’ identity is given to him from above.

What of our smaller selves do we begin to let go of this Lent? What do we allow to be transformed through our prayer life? How can we wrestle with the principalities and powers of our smaller selves so they fall away and we can claim our larger baptismal identity, our real identity, as God’s daughter and sons?

Third Sunday of Advent, March 20

Exodus 3:1-8, 13-15 or Isaiah 55: 1-9

1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

Luke 13:1-9

In this third week of our Lenten journey, we listen to Jesus tell us the parable of “The Fig Tree.” Parables are stories that describe both our outer and inner worlds at the same time. The owner of the fig tree wants to cut the unproductive tree down so he can make space for something productive. Instead, the gardener asks for one more season to work on the unproductive tree with gardening practices.

This is a real parable of grace. Lent this year is one more chance to work with our spiritual disciplines on both the unproductive and productive parts of our lives. What are the aspects of our inner lives that seem dead? What are the non-growing aspects of our lives? Where is there growth? How can we allow the grace of one more Lenten season to help us grow into our full identity in God?

Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 27

Joshua 5:9-12

2 Corinthians 5:17-21

Luke 15:1-32

We are starting to get tired in our Lenten journey by now. Maybe we have already given up on Lenten disciplines for this year. Maybe it is a good time to hear some pure words of invitation from another parable of Jesus. We call this the parable of “The Prodigal Son”. We put all the emphasis on the repentant younger son coming to his senses. Helmut Thielicke calls it the parable of “The Waiting Father” because both sons were lost to the Father’s love. One son rebelled against it and one son thought he had to earn it. The waiting Father goes out to his sons and invites them back into their place of true sonship of his love

How have we responded to the love of our always waiting divine parent? When have we been rebellious? Have we been trying to earn God’s love by our moral behavior and by our right belief? Can we dress up in the clothes of our true identity? Can we accept the invitation to the feast of celebration? Or will we stay eating with the pigs or grumbling outside the feast?

Fifth Sunday of Lent, April 3

Isaiah 43:16-21 Philippians

3:4b-14 John 12:1-8

Our final reflection of this year's Lenten journey finds us at the table of Lazarus, where Mary, his sister, acts as host. This is the story of the anointing of Jesus feet with perfume made of pure nard, an act of conscious loving. Judas could only see this act of love in terms of its value in money. Her devotion to Jesus becomes the basis of her service.

Have our Lenten disciplines helped transform us into faithful disciples who act with conscious loving? Or are we still living under the sway of our smaller selves like Judas whose self-interest is based on security and survival; power or control; or affection, esteem and approval? Do we create road blocks or are we generous and loving?

Did our Lenten journey this year make us ready to let go? Do we follow Jesus' path of letting go described in the Palm Sunday text from Philippians 2?

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who,
though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied
himself,
taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

What people are saying about the Engaged Couple Retreat Day

"I really enjoyed the program. It gave me a better understanding about marriage in the Catholic Church."

"This retreat truly made us think about what is important in our life, and helped to bring us even closer together."

"I found you start realizing more about marriage than just the 'caught up in the moment details.' I didn't focus too much on the details, but more on the relationship."

Why attend an Engaged Couple Retreat?

The Engaged Couple Retreat is a day-long marriage preparation workshop designed to assist engaged couples in preparing for their life-long vocation of marriage. It is a day to study, review, and learn the truth, beauty and joy of God's plan for marriage. There will be time for couples to focus on their relationship with each other, with Christ, and with His Church.

The retreat day consists of a series of short presentations providing basic instruction in the nature of the Sacrament of Marriage - its essential elements, marriage as a Christian vocation, as well as couple discussion and prayer. In addition, couples will receive a clear understanding of Christian sexuality and the role that God desires to play in marriage and family life.

THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us—all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others.

It's as simple as A, B, C.

Ask for his mercy
