Community Cupboard Bulletin Announcements 2022

Announcement # 1

Catholic Charities will launch its annual Community Cupboard campaign on Monday, July 18, 2022. This campaign responds to the economic hardships impacting many local families who struggle to keep food on their tables, purchase taxable goods, and pay their utility bills. These same families may already receive SNAP (food stamps) benefits to purchase food, but those benefits cannot be used to purchase personal care items or household products. The personal hygiene, paper, and cleaning products collected during the Community Cupboard campaign are distributed by our Catholic Charities agency sites to help restore clients' dignity and self-esteem. Please visit www.ccdoy.org to learn more or make a donation at a Catholic Charities agency site near you. Donors are strongly encouraged to call the site first to confirm delivery details, such as office hours.

Announcement # 2

Our faith reminds us to love God and to serve others. Many of the families who come to Catholic Charities for assistance could use our help keeping their families fed, clean and safe. Catholic Charities' Community Cupboard campaign provides hygiene items, cleaning products and peace of mind to families in need. This campaign is a great service project for parish groups, youth groups, or local families to participate in. Please visit www.ccdoy.org to learn more about this important effort.

For a list of all area locations, visit www.ccdoy.org/locations.

Announcement # 3

When poor and working poor families face a set-back, such as an unexpected medical expense, missing work due to a sick child, or vehicle repairs, the consequences can lead to a serious and immediate financial crisis. Sometimes there is not enough money left to cover all of the monthly expenses, especially hygiene items, cleaning and laundry supplies. Catholic Charities' annual Community Cupboard campaign aims to provide families these much needed items during times of crisis. Please support our Community Cupboard campaign by visiting our website to learn more (www.ccdoy.org), praying for those impacted by poverty, and by making a donation to an agency site nearest you. Donors are strongly encouraged to call the site first to confirm delivery details, such as office hours. Thank you! For a list of all area locations, visit www.ccdoy.org/locations.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES, DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

COMMUNITY CUPBOARD CAMPAIGN

JULY 18 - JULY 25, 2022

The Catholic Charities Community Cupboard Campaign collects personal hygiene, cleaning, and paper products that clients need access to in order to feel good about themselves. When Catholic Charities is able to offer clients these items, we affirm—and sometimes restore—their dignity and sense of self-worth.

We continue to see an increase in demand for these resources to meet the needs of those in crisis. After many conversations with our clients, we have learned that personal hygiene, household cleaning, and paper products are difficult items for them to obtain on a regular basis.

Visit www.ccdoy.org for more information or drop off a donation at a location near you.

Stewardship Bulletin Thoughts
July - September 2022

July 3, 2022

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” Luke 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given “charisms” otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God’s Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say “yes” to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

July 10, 2022

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” Luke 10:37

This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

July 17, 2022

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.” Colossians 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

July 24, 2022

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.”

Luke 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

July 31, 2022

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

August 7, 2022

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” Luke 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.

August 14, 2022

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.”

Luke 12:51

Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don’t want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. Form your conscience; take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.

August 21, 2022

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last.” Luke 13:30

Our cultural standards are different from God’s standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, “What have you done with the gifts I have given you?” How will you respond?

August 28, 2022

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.” Luke 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our “consumerist” culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser, you pay money and receive something in return, it’s just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus’, renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

September 4, 2022

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” Luke 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

September 11, 2022

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Everything I have is yours.” Luke 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son, we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do you really want to turn your back on all that God offers in exchange for material wealth that has no lasting value? God wants us to be happy on earth as well. But, that requires us to freely accept His gift of faith; putting Him first in all things and detaching from our own self-sufficiency.

September 18, 2022

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).” Luke 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run “neck and neck” as top priority. Is money a “god” that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

September 25, 2022

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established...” Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today’s Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

REFLEXIONES DEL BOLETIN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Julio - Septiembre 2022

3 de Julio de 2022

Domingo 14° del Tiempo Ordinario

Él les dijo, "La cosecha es abundante, pero los trabajadores son pocos..." Lucas 10:2

Como Católicos todos estamos llamados a servir. A cada uno de nosotros se nos han otorgado "carismas", también conocidos como dones del Espíritu Santo, para ayudarnos a construir la Iglesia de Dios. Nuestros carismas solamente pueden utilizarse para bien. Sabemos que los estamos utilizando en el ministerio correcto cuando nos sentimos llenos de alegría y queremos compartir las historias acerca de nuestras obras de caridad. Descifre como Dios lo llama a utilizar sus carismas. ¡Dígale "sí" al llamado de Dios y luego póngalo en práctica! Comparta su alegría e invite a los demás a hacer lo mismo.

10 de Julio de 2022

Domingo 15° del Tiempo Ordinario

"Jesus le dijo, 'Ve y haz lo mismo'" Lucas 10:37

Este fue el mandato de Jesus al final de la historia del Buen Samaritano. ¿Sabía usted que los Samaritanos y los Judíos se despreciaban los unos a los otros? La moraleja de la historia es amar a nuestros vecinos. Eso quiere decir amar a alguien que usted quizás no conoce, que luce diferente a usted, que tiene creencias diferentes a las suyas, o que a usted no le gusta. Todo sin esperar nada a cambio.

17 de julio de 2022

Domingo 16° del Tiempo Ordinario

"...Soy ministro de acuerdo con el plan que Dios me ha dado: dar cumplimiento a la palabra de Dios." Colosenses 1:25

Todos somos llamados a evangelizar - a convertir a los individuos y a la sociedad por el poder divino del Evangelio. Nuestra fe es más atractiva a los demás por nuestras obras que solo por nuestras palabras. Puede que no seamos llamados para evangelizar como San Pablo, pero debemos buscar oportunidades para compartir nuestra fe a través de nuestras acciones y palabras, especialmente con aquellos que están más cerca de nosotros, como nuestra familia, amigos y vecinos. Rece para tener el valor de expresar alegremente su fe la próxima vez que se presente la oportunidad.

24 de julio de 2022

Domingo 17° del Tiempo Ordinario

"Pidan, y se les dará; busquen, y encontrarán; llamen, y se les abrirá la puerta" Lucas 11: 9

Jesús nos asegura que, si le pedimos, Dios se ocupará de nuestras necesidades. El problema es que nuestra cultura a menudo confunde lo que realmente necesitamos y lo que simplemente queremos. La verdad es que muchos de nosotros necesitamos muy poco. Sin embargo, ¡usualmente queremos mucho más! Corresponsabilidad es simplemente estar agradecido por todo lo que somos y por todo lo que se nos ha dado, y compartir generosamente con los demás todos los dones que Dios nos ha otorgado. La generosidad es un don que abre puertas a nuevas relaciones con los demás y con Dios.

31 de julio de 2022

Domingo 18° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Estén atentos y cuidense de toda forma de avaricia; porque aun cuando alguien tenga abundancia, su vida no consiste en tener bienes” Lucas 12:15

El mensaje del Evangelio es contrario a la cultura moderna que continuamente trata de convencernos de que nuestra alegría viene de los bienes materiales que poseemos. Que mientras más cosas adquirimos, más felices seremos. Jesús nos muestra que nuestra verdadera alegría viene de nuestros dones “invisibles” como el amor, la misericordia y el perdón. La verdadera alegría viene de “vaciarlos” nosotros mismos, dando de nosotros en lugar de tomar. No somos llamados a atesorar sino a compartir. La verdadera alegría viene de tener un estilo de vida agradecido y generoso; de transformarnos para estar más “centrados en Dios” y ser menos “egocéntricos”.

7 de agosto de 2022

Domingo 19° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Porque donde estén sus tesoros, allí estará su corazón» Lucas 12:34

Jesús nos anima a construir nuestros tesoros en el cielo. El mundo nos anima a construir nuestros tesoros en bienes raíces, inversiones y bienes materiales. ¿Cuánto tiempo invierte en construir su tesoro terrenal? ¿Cuánto tiempo invierte en construir su tesoro celestial? Para invertir más en las cosas del cielo, debe dejar ir algunas de las cosas de este mundo.

14 de agosto de 2022

Domingo 20° del Tiempo Ordinario

“¿Creen ustedes que vine a traer paz a la tierra? ¡No! Más bien vine a traer división” Lucas 12:51

A muchos de nosotros nos gusta ir a lo seguro, no causar problemas con nuestra familia y amigos, especialmente cuando se trata de política y religión.

No queremos causar ningún revuelo. Sin embargo, muchas veces lo hacemos a expensas de la verdad. Jesucristo es la verdad. Demasiadas personas están equivocadas porque confían en su propia capacidad humana limitada para razonar y no permiten que la fe en Dios los guíe.

Forma tu conciencia; toma una postura a favor de la vida, el matrimonio y la libertad religiosa.

21 de agosto de 2022

Domingo 21° del Tiempo Ordinario

*“Entonces verán que los últimos serán los primeros, y los primeros serán los últimos”
Lucas 13:30*

Nuestros estándares culturales son diferentes de los estándares de Dios. A menudo clasificamos a las personas por lo que tienen, por cuán poderosas o exitosas son. Jesús nos recuerda que Dios no nos juzgará por los mismos estándares terrenales. Cuando Dios te pregunte, “¿Qué has hecho con los dones que yo te he dado?” ¿Cómo le responderás?

28 de agosto de 2022

Domingo 22° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Lo mejor es que cuando des un banquete, invites a los pobres, a los inválidos, a los cojos y a los ciegos. Así serás dichoso, pues ellos no tienen con qué recompensarte” Lucas 14:13-14

Uno de los principios más importantes de vivir un estilo de vida de corresponsabilidad es dar sin esperar nada a cambio. Para algunos es difícil comprender la cultura de “consumismo” en la que vivimos. Esto es aún más difícil para muchas comunidades parroquiales que se han vuelto en gran manera dependientes de los eventos de recaudación de fondos para apoyar las misiones y ministerios de su parroquia local. En términos generales, en una recaudación de fondos parroquiales, se paga dinero y se recibe algo a cambio, es solo una transacción financiera. Esto se opone a nuestro ofertorio parroquial en la Santa Misa, donde unimos nuestro sacrificio con el de Jesús, renovando nuestra relación de alianza con Él.

Domingo 23° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Cualquiera de ustedes que no renuncie a todas sus posesiones no puede ser mi discípulo” Lucas 14:33

Cuando oímos esta afirmación por primera vez, parece que Jesús nos está haciendo una demanda poco realista. ¿Cómo podemos renunciar a todas nuestras posesiones? Las necesitamos para vivir. Sin embargo, a lo que debemos renunciar es a la creencia de que nos pertenecen. Todo lo que tenemos le pertenece únicamente a Dios. Todos esos recursos se nos confiaron no sólo para nuestro propio uso, sino también para que pudiéramos ayudar a los demás. Al renunciar a la idea de que poseemos esos recursos o que tenemos derecho a algo, es mucho más fácil compartir los muchos dones que Dios nos ha dado. Entonces, seremos realmente Sus Discípulos.

Domingo 24° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Todo lo que tengo es de ustedes” Lucas 15:31

Nuestro Padre Celestial nos da todo, incluyendo el chance de compartir Su reino eterno. Sin embargo, como el Hijo Pródigo, a menudo somos tentados a alejarnos por el materialismo de nuestra sociedad. ¿Realmente queremos volverle la espalda a todo lo que Dios nos ofrece a cambio de riquezas materiales que no tienen un valor perdurable? Dios también quiere que seamos felices en la tierra, pero eso requiere que aceptemos libremente Su don de fe; poniéndolo a Él primero en todas las cosas y liberándonos de nuestra propia autosuficiencia.

Domingo 25° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Ningún siervo puede servir a dos señores. Odiaría a uno y amaría al otro, o será devoto de uno y menospreciará al otro. Usted no puede servir a Dios y a la riqueza” Lucas 16:13

Jesús sabe que, para muchos de nosotros, Dios y el dinero corren “cabeza a cabeza” por la máxima prioridad. ¿Es el dinero un “dios” que anteponemos a Dios? Dar dinero para apoyar a la Iglesia y otras obras de caridad es un pilar de nuestra fe, tal como lo es asistir a la Misa todos los domingos y participar en los ministerios de la parroquia. Donar dinero nos libera de convertirnos en esclavos del dinero. Aumenta nuestra dependencia de Dios y nuestra confianza en que Dios proveerá todo lo que necesitamos.

Domingo 26° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Amigo, recuerda que durante tu vida terrena recibiste muchos bienes, y que Lázaro, en cambio, solamente recibió males. Pues bien, ahora él goza aquí de consuelo y a ti te toca sufrir. Más aun, entre nosotros y ustedes hay un abismo infranqueable ...”. Lucas 16:25-26

Cuando Dios creó el universo declaró lo que era bueno y se lo dio a la humanidad para que lo disfrutara. Sin embargo, a lo largo de los años hemos creado un abismo entre los que recibieron grandes dones y los que no. En el Evangelio de hoy vemos que con nuestra propia generosidad debemos cerrar la brecha que permita unir a aquellos que tienen mucho con los que tienen poco, o nos podremos encontrar en el lado equivocado del abismo en la próxima vida.

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly 2022

Pope Francis established the celebration of World Day for Grandparents and Elderly on the fourth Sunday of July, near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus. The theme for this year's celebration on July 24, 2022 is "In Old Age They Will Still Bear Fruit" (Ps. 92:15).

This year, Pope Francis is also extending a plenary indulgence "to the faithful who devote adequate time to visit ... their elderly brothers and sisters" on July 24, in person or virtually.

Plenary Indulgence

- The Apostolic Penitentiary promulgated a decree granting Plenary Indulgence on the occasion of World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly — July 24, 2022.
- For the elderly, it is possible to obtain the Indulgence by attending one of the Masses celebrated on the occasion of the Day.
- Considering that some elderly people are unable to attend Mass in person for health reasons, the Indulgence is extended to those who take part through television, radio or the web.
- The Indulgence is also granted to all those who, on the occasion of the Day, perform a 'work of mercy' through visiting a lonely elderly person.

On July 24 visit a Grandparent or Elderly Person!

The Reception of Holy Communion at Mass

Part 1

The Church understands the Communion Procession, in fact every procession in liturgy, as a sign of the pilgrim Church, the body of those who believe in Christ, on their way to the Heavenly Jerusalem. All our lives we who believe in Christ are moving in time toward that moment when we will be taken by death from this world and enter into the joy of the Lord in the eternal Kingdom he has prepared for us.

The liturgical assembly of the baptized that comes together for the celebration of the Eucharist is a witness to, a manifestation of, the pilgrim Church. When we move in procession, particularly the procession to receive the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion, we are a sign, a symbol of that pilgrim Church “on the way.” For some, however, the experience of the Communion Procession is far more routine, similar perhaps to standing in line at the supermarket or at the motor vehicle bureau. A perception such as this is a dreadfully inaccurate and impoverished understanding of what is a significant religious action.

The Communion Procession is an action of the Body of Christ. At Christ’s invitation, extended by the priest acting in Christ’s person, we hear at Mass, “Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.” The members of the community move forward to share in the sacred meal, to receive the Body and Blood of Christ which is the sign and the source of their unity. In fact, each time we move forward together to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord, we join the countless ranks of all the baptized who have gone before us; our loved ones, the canonized and uncanonized saints down through the ages, who at their time in history formed a part of this mighty stream of believers.

This action by Christ’s body, the Church assembled for the Eucharist, is manifested and supported by the Communion Hymn, a hymn in praise of Christ sung by the united voices of those who believe in him and share his life.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) takes this hymn very seriously, mandating that it should begin at the Communion of the priest and extend until the last person has received Communion.

For some, however, the singing of this hymn is perceived as an intrusion on their own prayer, their private thanksgiving after Communion. In fact, however, this hymn is prayer, the corporate thanksgiving prayer of the members of Christ’s Body, united with one another. Over and over again the prayers of the liturgy and the norms of the GIRM emphasize this fundamental concept of the unity of the baptized, stressing that when we come together to participate in the Eucharistic celebration we come, not as individuals, but as united members of Christ’s body.

In each of the Eucharistic Prayers, though the petition is worded in slightly different ways, God is asked to send his Holy Spirit to make us one body, one spirit in Christ. The GIRM admonishes the faithful that they form one body, by hearing the word of God and by joining in prayer and singing...(#96); it describes one purpose of the opening song of the Mass as to...foster the unity of those who have been gathered and says of the Communion Song that its function is to express outwardly the communicants’ union in spirit by means of the unity of their voices,...and to highlight the “communitarian” nature of the procession to receive Communion. (#86).

It is difficult for some of us to embrace this emphasis on Mass as the action of a community rather than an individual act of my own faith and piety, but it is important that we make every effort to do so. Christ himself at the Last Supper pleaded with his Father: Holy Father, keep those you have given me true to your name, so that they may be one like us...Father may they be one in us, as you are in me and I am in you... (Jn. 17:11;21). Baptism has joined us to Christ and to one another as the vine and its branches. The life of Christ, the Holy Spirit, enlivens each of us individually and all of us corporately, to guide us in our efforts to become one in Christ.

Finally, the fact that the Communion Procession is a profoundly religious action tells us something about the way in which we should participate in this procession. We are the Body of Christ, moving forward to receive the Christ who makes us one with himself and with one another. Our procession should move with dignity; our bearing should be that of those who know they have been redeemed by Christ and are coming to receive their God!

The revised 2002 edition of the GIRM asks the Conference of Bishops in each country to determine the posture to be used for the reception of Holy Communion and the act of reverence to be made by each person as he or she receives. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has determined that in this country Holy Communion will be received standing and that a simple bow of the head will be the act of reverence made by those receiving. These norms may require some adjustment on the part of those who have been using other practices, however the significance of unity in posture and gesture as a symbol of our unity as members of the one Body of Christ should be the governing factor in our actions.

Those who receive Holy Communion may receive either in the hand or on the tongue, and this decision should be that of the individual receiving, not of the person distributing Communion. If Holy Communion is received in the hand, the hands should first of all be clean. If one is right handed the left hand should rest upon the right. The host will then be laid in the palm of the left hand and then taken by the right hand to the mouth. If one is left-handed this is reversed. It is not appropriate to reach out with the fingers and take the host from the person distributing.

The person distributing Communion says audibly to each person approaching, "The Body of Christ." This formula should not be altered, as it is a proclamation which calls for a response of faith on the part of the one who receives. The communicant should audibly respond "Amen," indicating by that response his or her belief that this small piece of bread and the wine in this chalice are in reality the Body and Blood of Christ the Lord.

When one receives from the chalice, "The Blood of Christ," is spoken by the person distributing Communion and the communicant again responds "Amen." It should be noted that it is never permissible for a person to dip the host he or she has received into the chalice. If, for some reason, the communicant is not able or willing to drink from the chalice then that person should receive only under the form of bread.

The Gesture of Reverence for Receiving Communion and Giving Thanks Part 2

Gestures of homage and reverence for the Body of Christ are as old as the magi we hear about in the Christmas story. That is what St. John Chrysostom, the “Golden-Mouthed” bishop of Constantinople, told his congregation 1600 years ago: “The wise men paid homage to Christ’s Body when it was lying in the manger.” But he reminded his hearers that, “Unlike the wise men, you do not merely see Christ’s Body; you know his power as well, and the whole divine plan for our salvation...Let us then awaken in ourselves a feeling of awe, and let us show a far greater reverence than did those foreigners...”

The Church has constantly desired a deep reverence on the part of all who receive Jesus Christ in Holy Communion. The outward gestures by which inner reverence has been expressed have differed from place to place and changed throughout history. Before the Second Vatican Council, those entering the Communion procession with other communicants and the entire congregation would recite the Act of Contrition. We would move to the Communion rail, kneel, and carefully receive the Host on the tongue (receiving in our hands and from the chalice were not permitted for laypersons in those days).

After the Second Vatican Council, standing in the aisle to receive Holy Communion became a widespread and customary way to receive Communion, either from a priest or deacon, or, after 1973, from a layperson who had been commissioned as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. A simpler, shorter formula, “The Body of Christ,” invited each communicant to speak a sincere “Amen,” to the presence of Christ in the Eucharist and in the assembly that shares it. Receiving the Body of Christ in the hand became an approved option, as did receiving the Precious Blood from the chalice, first on a limited basis, but now allowed at any Eucharist celebrated in our country. Clearly the way in which we Catholics receive Communion has changed since Vatican II, but one thing should be changeless: our reverence and care in receiving the Lord Jesus in this holy sacrament.

This is why the bishops of the United States included in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) that those receiving Communion should “make an appropriate gesture of reverence” (#160). In their adaptation to this document, our bishops have prescribed standing as the posture for receiving Holy Communion in the United States, a posture confirmed by the Vatican, as well as prescribing a “gesture of reverence.” First, some words about standing.

Certainly throughout history and in Western culture, kneeling and genuflecting have expressed a reverence and humility before great personage, for example, before the queen of England. But today, in our contemporary American culture, standing is a more general and customary posture of respect and honor: for example, we rise from our seats when the President of the United States enters a room. Also, standing is a “resurrection” posture: it is how we Easter people symbolically express our sharing in the life of the risen Christ who stood triumphant over sin and the grave. Standing to receive Communion should look and feel different from standing in the check-out lane.

Perhaps such considerations have led our bishops to request unity in standing as we receive the Lord Jesus in Holy Communion, so that our bodies express what we believe in our hearts: the risen Lord is given to us as the pledge of our risen life with him.

The United States bishops have also declared that, “when receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister. The consecrated host may be received either on the tongue or in the hand, at the discretion of each communicant. When Holy Communion is received under both kinds, the sign of reverence is also made before receiving the Precious Blood” (GIRM #160).

Thus, the “reverent gesture” is to be a bow of the head before the Sacrament. We come forward to Communion in the usual manner. We approach the Communion minister reverently and come to a complete stop, so as to focus on what we are about to do. Showing the consecrated host, the minister says, “The Body of Christ.” We bow our head and then after we have raised our head respond, “Amen.” The minister offers the Sacrament to us, and we reverently receive the Body of Christ either in our hand or on our tongue. When receiving the Sacrament in our hand, we place one hand, palm up, on top of the other hand. Ancient writers called this gesture making a throne for Christ the King. After receiving the Sacrament in our hand, we take a short step to the side, stop for a brief moment and then reverently take the consecrated host using the hand which is under the hand holding the host, place it in our mouth and consume the host.

Likewise, when we receive the Precious Blood from the chalice, we approach the chalice and after the minister has said “The Blood of Christ,” we bow our head and then after we have raised our head respond, “Amen.” We then take the chalice into our hands, drink, and return the chalice to the minister who wipes the rim of the chalice using a cloth purificator.

The practice in some places of a communicant taking the consecrated host and then dipping it into the consecrated wine is prohibited by liturgical law. It is also potentially irreverent as drops of the Precious Blood can fall onto the floor.

As a reminder, the “reverent gesture” is not simply a nod of the head but an unhurried bow of the head. Through our bow of the head we profess our faith in the Eucharistic presence of Christ, and express our reverence.

Finally, the General Instruction states that, after all have received Holy Communion, a period of quiet prayer and reflection is desired. Private prayer and thanksgiving, rooted in sacred silence, has long been a recommended practice through which the priest and faithful offer thanks for gift of the Lord in Holy Communion. The length of silence is dependent on the level of festivity and liturgical season. It should blend in with the rhythm of the Communion Rite. The Communion Rite is brought to completion with the Prayer after Communion by which the priest, in the name of the community, prays for the fruits of the mystery just celebrated.

We Dare To Say "Amen"

Part 3

Four-letter words can get you in trouble. Your mother probably taught you this when you were very young. In the liturgy we frequently use a four-letter word, and it can get us in trouble, too. It's a word that we adopted directly from the Hebrew language. The word is "Amen."

If you ask how to translate "Amen," the most basic meaning and valid definition is "So be it." "Amen" is a word that expresses our assent to what has preceded it.

Think of all the times we say "Amen" during Mass. At the beginning we say "Amen" to the sign of the cross. We agree that we are worshipping in the name of the Trinity. We say "Amen" to several shorter prayers during the Mass: the concluding prayer in the act of penitence, the opening prayer of the Mass, the concluding prayer of the universal prayers, the prayer over the gifts and the prayer after communion. In all these, our "Amen" makes the prayers our own, affirming what has been spoken in our name. We also say "Amen" at the end of the Glory to God and the Profession of Faith. With these two "Amens," we express our agreement with the praise offered to God and the faith that we share. Our most significant "Amen," however, comes at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer and at the reception of Communion. In different ways, these "Amens" express our willingness to join ourselves with Christ and embrace his sacrifice.

At the end of the Eucharistic Prayer, we generally sing the Great Amen three times. This "Amen" says that we accept and affirm all that has been proclaimed in the prayer, especially the Paschal Mystery, the death and resurrection of Christ.

Scholars tell us that the root word in early Hebrew from which "Amen" is derived meant "to pound in one's tent stake." Recall that when the Hebrew people were wandering in the desert, a tent was necessary to shield them from the heat of the midday sun and from the cold of the desert night. Thus this phrase and meaning sounds a lot like our expression "I'd stake my life on it."

When we sing "Amen" at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer, we are proclaiming that we will stake our life on the Paschal Mystery, that we are willing to die to self in order to rise to new life, and that we will accept whatever comes from following the Father's will as Jesus did.

Likewise at Communion, we say "Amen" when we receive the Body and Blood of the Lord. This response means more than agreeing that the bread and wine are Christ's Body and Blood. By saying "Amen," we accept the Body of Christ broken for us and the Blood of Christ poured out for us. We recognize that we are part of the Body of Christ who share this communion together. We express our willingness to become the Body of Christ in the world today; to pour out our lives for the sake of others. Thus the only proper response to the reception of Holy Communion is always AMEN! However, be careful when you say it. This four letter word can get you in trouble because of what it requires of you.

THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us—all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others.

It's as simple as A, B, C.

Ask for his mercy

Be merciful

Completely trust Jesus
