Quote of the Month:

"Instead of being just a church that welcomes and receives by keeping the doors open, let us try also to be a church that finds new roads, that is able to step outside itself and go to those who do not attend Mass, to those who have quit or are indifferent. The ones who quit sometimes do it for reason that, if properly understood and assessed, can lead to a return. But that takes audacity and courage." -Pope Francis

Catholic Charities Support for Ukraine

Financial Support

Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Youngstown continues to accept financial contributions to assist the people of Ukraine. 100% of the funds we receive in the Diocese of Youngstown for Ukraine will be divided between the United State Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Subcommittee on Aid to the Church in Eastern Europe and Catholic Relief Services, unless otherwise specified by the donor. Both of these organizations are uniquely suited to help, since they and their partners have been "on the ground" for years doing critical work. Both are intently focused right now on supporting the emergency needs of Ukraine and Ukrainian refugees, with any additional funds (if applicable) supporting ongoing needs in Eastern Europe and globally. Please note that Catholic Charities in the Diocese of Youngstown does not process or keep any of these disaster donations for Ukraine for our local efforts in the collection process. All of the money goes to the people who desperately need it.

Sponsor Support

Uniting for Ukraine is a streamlined process that allows for Ukrainian citizens who have been displaced by Russia's aggression to apply for humanitarian parole in the United States.

Under Uniting for Ukraine, the U.S. government allows people fleeing the war in Ukraine to seek refuge in the United States on a temporary basis known as humanitarian parole, with the support of a sponsor in the United States. The sponsor will provide financial support to meet the basic needs of someone fleeing Ukraine. They may also provide additional support, such as assistance enrolling in educational or training programs or securing employment.

Sponsors can be U.S. citizens, permanent residents or other lawfully present individuals. This includes individuals on Temporary Protected Status (TPS) and refugees. Groups of sponsors, nonprofits, educational institutions, and employers can also help sponsor people fleeing Ukraine.

So far this year, more than 70,000 Americans have applied to become a sponsor. If you are already connected to a Ukrainian individual or family, please use this link for information on becoming a sponsor.

SPONSORS: <https://ukraine.welcome.us/resources>

According to the USCCB, this program will need an additional 30,000 to 40,000 American households to register as sponsors in the months to come. If you are interested in becoming a sponsor, but are not currently connected to a Ukrainian individual or family, learn more about how may be able to connect with someone in need in order to become their sponsor by viewing the link below. The responsibility for making a "connection" will fall upon the Ukrainian beneficiary. It must be their final decision to connect.*

Stewardship Bulletin Thoughts
September 2022

September 4, 2022

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” Luke 14:33
When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

September 11, 2022

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Everything I have is yours.” Luke 15:31

Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son, we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do you really want to turn your back on all that God offers in exchange for material wealth that has no lasting value? God wants us to be happy on earth as well. But, that requires us to freely accept His gift of faith; putting Him first in all things and detaching from our own self-sufficiency.

September 18, 2022

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).” Luke 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run “neck and neck” as top priority. Is money a “god” that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

September 25, 2022

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established...” Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today’s Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

REFLEXIONES DEL BOLETIN DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Septiembre 2022

4 de septiembre de 2022

Domingo 23° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Cualquiera de ustedes que no renuncie a todas sus posesiones no puede ser mi discípulo” Lucas 14:33

Cuando oímos esta afirmación por primera vez, parece que Jesús nos está haciendo una demanda poco realista. ¿Cómo podemos renunciar a todas nuestras posesiones? Las necesitamos para vivir. Sin embargo, a lo que debemos renunciar es a la creencia de que nos pertenecen. Todo lo que tenemos le pertenece únicamente a Dios. Todos esos recursos se nos confiaron no sólo para nuestro propio uso, sino también para que pudiéramos ayudar a los demás. Al renunciar a la idea de que poseemos esos recursos o que tenemos derecho a algo, es mucho más fácil compartir los muchos dones que Dios nos ha dado. Entonces, seremos realmente Sus Discípulos.

11 de septiembre de 2022

Domingo 24° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Todo lo que tengo es de ustedes” Lucas 15:31

Nuestro Padre Celestial nos da todo, incluyendo el chance de compartir Su reino eterno. Sin embargo, como el Hijo Pródigo, a menudo somos tentados a alejarnos por el materialismo de nuestra sociedad. ¿Realmente queremos volverle la espalda a todo lo que Dios nos ofrece a cambio de riquezas materiales que no tienen un valor perdurable? Dios también quiere que seamos felices en la tierra, pero eso requiere que aceptemos libremente Su don de fe; poniéndolo a Él primero en todas las cosas y liberándonos de nuestra propia autosuficiencia.

18 de septiembre de 2022

Domingo 25° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Ningún siervo puede servir a dos señores. Odiaría a uno y amaría al otro, o será devoto de uno y menospreciará al otro. Usted no puede servir a Dios y a la riqueza” Lucas 16:13

Jesús sabe que, para muchos de nosotros, Dios y el dinero corren “cabeza a cabeza” por la máxima prioridad. ¿Es el dinero un “dios” que antepone a Dios? Dar dinero para apoyar a la Iglesia y otras obras de caridad es un pilar de nuestra fe, tal como lo es asistir a la Misa todos los domingos y participar en los ministerios de la parroquia. Donar dinero nos libera de convertirnos en esclavos del dinero. Aumenta nuestra dependencia de Dios y nuestra confianza en que Dios proveerá todo lo que necesitamos.

25 de septiembre de 2022

Domingo 26° del Tiempo Ordinario

“Amigo, recuerda que durante tu vida terrena recibiste muchos bienes, y que Lázaro, en cambio, solamente recibió males. Pues bien, ahora él goza aquí de consuelo y a ti te toca sufrir. Más aun, entre nosotros y ustedes hay un abismo infranqueable ...”. Lucas 16:25-26

Cuando Dios creó el universo declaró lo que era bueno y se lo dio a la humanidad para que lo disfrutara. Sin embargo, a lo largo de los años hemos creado un abismo entre los que recibieron grandes dones y los que no. En el Evangelio de hoy vemos que con nuestra propia generosidad debemos cerrar la brecha que permita unir a aquellos que tienen mucho con los que tienen poco, o nos podremos encontrar en el lado equivocado del abismo en la próxima vida.

CONFERENCIA DE OBISPOS CATÓLICOS DE LOS ESTADOS UNIDOS

SEPTEMBER BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFICE OF FAITH FORMATION AND LAY ECCLESIAL MINISTRY

CELEBRATE FAITH FORMATION September 4, 2022

Those who Labor in the Vineyard of the Lord serve with a joyful enthusiasm to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ at all times in all ways, often with little or no compensation for their generosity of time and talent. Perhaps today we can seek a catechist, youth minister, adult faith formation minister, or RCIA team member to express our appreciation for their willingness to share their faith with our parishioners and our community.

CELEBRATE THOSE WHO SHARE FAITH: September 11, 2022

The Ministry of the Word includes the mission of Faith Formation, Catechesis, and teaching. Catechesis means “to echo.” Believers who embrace the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the best news ever proclaimed are eager to “echo” the Good News everywhere. Have you shared your enthusiasm for the Catholic Church with someone recently?

HONOR OUR CATECHISTS AND TEACHERS: September 18, 2022

Today the Catholic Church of the United States observes “Catechetical Sunday” to recognize the importance of the ministry of catechesis. We honor those persons who share faith with other adults, youth and children through their service as catechists and facilitators in all of our parish ministries. Please commit yourself to pray for those who are helping faith to grow in you, and your family.

COMMIT TO LIFELONG LEARNING: September 25, 2022

Faith formation requires a commitment to lifelong learning and openness to grow in Discipleship. Many opportunities designed to assist adults to nurture their spirituality and acquire enhanced knowledge of the faith are presented during the fall and Advent season. Should you be open to expanding your understanding of the teaching of the Catholic Church, please contact the Diocesan Office of Faith Formation and Lay Ecclesial Ministry at 330 744-8451, visit <https://catechistcafe.weebly.com/catechist-courses.html> or speak with your Parish Director of Religious Education for more information.

THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us—all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others.

Ask for his mercy

Be merciful

Completely trust Jesus
