First Friday Club of Greater Youngstown presents:

Charles E. Wilkins, MD The Baby Boomer Generation aka the Alzheimer's Generation

Dr. Wilkins is a Youngstown native and a graduate of South High School. After high school he majored in Chemistry at the University of Cincinnati under Professor Hans Jaffe. He was the recipient of the Merck Index Award given to the student with the highest academic achievement in Organic Chemistry. He completed his Medical School training at the University of Cincinnati where he graduated alpha omega alpha. Afterwards he completed an Internal Medicine Residency at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He is board certified in Internal Medicine and Geriatric Medicine. In 1983 he worked under Professor Francis Caird, David Cargill Professor of Geriatric Medicine at the Southern General Hospital, University of Glasgow Scotland, the birthplace of Geriatrics. It was here that he met Dr. Paul Knight, the present President of the British Geriatrics Society and advisor to Sir Richard, physician to the Queen. He has kept a personal relationship with Dr. Knight and has sponsored yearly visiting Professorships with Dr. Knight for the past 30 years. Dr. Wilkins was a pioneer, starting one of the first Alzheimer's Day Care Units (Gericenter) in Youngstown in 1984 and along with Dorothy Barto presented to the first Alzheimer's support group meeting in 1981 held at the Lockwood Methodist Church. He also served as Program Director of the Internal Medicine Residency at St. Elizabeth for 8 years and as Medical Director of the Villa Marie Convent Infirmary for 6 years. Dr. Wilkins has been Director of Geriatric Medicine at St. Elizabeth for the last 30 years teaching numerous Students and Residents how to care for the older patient. He is a member of the American Geriatrics Society, British Geriatrics Society and the Irish Gerontologic Society. He is Clinical Associate Professor at NEOMED and OUCOM, and a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of Glasgow. He is presently the Medical Director of Paisley House, an assisted living facility for elderly women on the West Side. Dr. Wilkins is happily married to Kathleen Coughlin, a Mooney graduate who he met at St. Elizabeth.
